The wave of violence that affects many regions of the world has resulted in the annihilation of peoples and the persecution of our Christian brothers and sisters in the Middle East. We especially pray for those Christians who have been martyred and address our appeal to all concerned for the cessation of hostility and criminal activity.

Our most holy Church prays for the peace of the whole world and considers the respect of human dignity and freedom as the foundational and indelible right of every person. There is no “sacred” war. Only peace is sacred, and it is the supreme obligation of all.”

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew
Despite world-wide recognition of the status of His All-Holiness, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, and despite his being a Turkish citizen and having honorably served his country in the Turkish military, the government of Turkey will not officially recognize his status as the “Ecumenical” world-wide spiritual leader of all Orthodox Christians. It will give no legal status to his Ecumenical Patriarchate. It will not allow the complete freedom for the election of his successor as Ecumenical Patriarch. It will not allow the training of his clergy and the opening of the Halki Theological Seminary. It will not allow the return of all Greek Orthodox confiscated properties he needs to oversee without restrictions. His religious freedom remains compromised although the history of his country is tied to the historical doctrines and origins of Christianity.
To the honorable members of the Order of St. Andrew, esteemed Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate serving in America, our beloved in the Lord: May God’s grace and peace be with you.

It is with sentiments of great paternal love and joy that we address all of you, dear sons of the Ecumenical Throne, on the occasion of your Annual Meeting and the official presentation of the Annual Report of the Order of St. Andrew for 2017.

As each of you well know, by being granted an honorary title of official rank by the Mother Church of Constantinople, each archon is called to both know and exemplify what it means to live in a manner that is pleasing to God. Every year, each of you strives to achieve this personally as well as collectively, together with your fellow archons. At this very time, though, having now entered into the new ecclesiastical year, we must not only ask you, but also encourage you in the Lord Jesus to continue to do this even more so than ever before.

Most likely, beloved Archons, many of you probably find yourselves already busy at the start of this year. Around the globe, it seems that everyone’s schedules are easily being filled with endless lists of activities and responsibilities, interests and commitments. However, with our world facing so much distress and unrest at the same time, many of you can easily discern that what is indispensable right now is not so much the advancement of science and technology, or engineering and mathematics, even though they are significant as well. In truth, what our world needs today above all else is the advancement of spiritual work. And while the commandments and the basic tenets of our faith are absolutely essential and fundamental elements of Christian theology, they are not ends in themselves—not even means to an end either. They are merely a beginning.

Thus, as a life pleasing to God is by far the most defining characteristic of what it means to be a true Christian, we would like to beseech each and every one of you—having the distinct opportunity of communicating with you at the beginning of the new year—to continue to strive for holiness. Our world is desperately in need of Christian goodwill and kindness more than anything else, so in addition to all of the work that is to be done in the coming year, we must all simultaneously tend to the necessary spiritual work as well—that is, to the true spiritual needs and desires of our own hearts.

In order to navigate, then, through the harsh waters of today, the lamps of our hearts will need spiritual oil to shine brightly in the darkness, and the oars of our hearts will need to be spiritually propelled in order to move forward and make real progress. And together with our Patriarchal blessings and prayers, which we convey to all of you and your families, we beseech our loving Master to grant you strength and health, and to bless all of you with every good and perfect gift from above.

At the Ecumenical Patriarchate, the twentieth of October, 2017
Your fervent supplicant before God,

* BARTHOLOMEW
Archbishop of Constantinople-New Rome and Ecumenical Patriarch
October 20, 2017

Based on the gift each one has received, use it to serve others, as good managers of the varied grace of God (1Peter 4:10).

Dear Dr. Limberakis, Members of the National Council and Archons of the Order of Saint Andrew the Apostle,

I greet you in the love and peace of our Lord as you gather for the annual weekend of Archon meetings and activities.

Your service to the Church has distinguished you and earned you the noble title, Archon of the Ecumenical Patriarchate. With this honor comes the responsibility and privilege of being in the service of the Holy and Great Mother Church of Constantinople, the Sacred See of the First Called Apostle Andrew.

I extend to the Archons Elect who will be invested in the Class of 2017 my wholehearted welcome to New York and offer my heartfelt best wishes as you embark on this new path of Christian servanthood. You join a committed cadre of leaders who promote religious freedom and the well being and advancement of the Ecumenical Patriarchate with the fervor that is characteristic of abiding love for the Church and esteem and respect for His All Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew.

I congratulate Archon John Catsimatidis for receiving the Nicholas J. Bouuras Award for Extraordinary Archon Stewardship. I wish him Godspeed as he continues to offer his bountiful God given talents and resources for the good of the Church. I am also thankful to God for each of you and pray for your continued strength and resolve as you work ceaselessly in support of the ministry of our Ecumenical Patriarchate.

With paternal love in Christ,

+ DEMETRIOS
Archbishop of America
October 20, 2017

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew,
His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America,
Members of the Holy Eparchial Synod,
His Eminence Metropolitan Antony of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA,
His Grace Bishop Gregory of Nyssa of the Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese of the USA, Reverend Clergy and beloved Presbyteres and Brother Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in America,

From the onset, let us all offer our profound gratitude for the extraordinary ministry of His All-Holiness BARTHOLOMEW, the 269th direct successor of Saint Andrew the First Called Apostle. The dynamic ministry of Martyria (witness) and Diakonia (service) of His All-Holiness is intrepid, sacrificial and inspiring. Our worldwide spiritual father continues to serve with unparalleled achievement, despite situated in a country noted for its profound religious freedom deficit and the number of journalists it has imprisoned (the most in the world). Εἰς πολλά έτη Δέσποτα.

It is with great joy that we offer heartfelt congratulations to our beloved Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America who observes the 50th Anniversary of his ordination into the episcopacy. Since 1999 he has served as Archbishop of America and Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate with distinction and great piety introducing a broad range of ministries serving his flock in America. The Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine stands as an example par excellence of His Eminence's leadership in America. Εἰς πολλά έτη Δέσποτα.

The continued rebuilding of the Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine enabling its resurrection marks another milestone event for 2017. The fulfilled $1 million commitment the Order made towards the rebuilding of the Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine marked a significant demonstration of collective Archon Stewardship supporting the triumph of good over evil, light over darkness. In this spirit, we Archons have taken the “ecumenical” in the Ecumenical Patriarchate and made it resound throughout our community, for Saint Nicholas will belong to the Nation and to the world, as a living embodiment of the highest values of the Great Church, and Her martyric, peace-loving presence in the oikoumene. Indeed, we look forward to the Thyranoixia scheduled in late 2018! We salute our Spiritual Advisor Fr. Alexander Karloutsos for his dynamism and leadership in raising the funds necessary to build this living monument erected for the Glory of God.
The ensuing pages of our 2017 Annual Report review the 5 Issues of Concern that constitute the profound religious freedom deficit in Turkey, the major activities and initiatives of His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch BARTHOLOMEW and a pictorial summary of the local and national activities of the Order of Saint Andrew the Apostle, Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in America.

The Report reviews the multifaceted, domestic and international initiatives of the Order in our relentless pursuit of religious freedom for the Ecumenical Patriarchate. Archon Congressman Gus Bilirakis leads the Washington presence of the Order assisted by the Manatos Team and Archon John A. Catsimatidis who chairs the Religious Freedom Committee. In the European Union arena, the Order works closely with the Liaison Office of the Orthodox Church to the European Union. The major components of our strategy include the following:

- Washington, DC Initiative, coordinated by Regional Commander Archon Andrew E. Manatos and Archon Mike Manatos
  - White House
  - State Department
  - Congress, including meetings with Speaker Paul Ryan and Congressional Foreign Policy leaders
  - United States Commission on International Religious Freedom

- Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) Initiative, coordinated by Archon Constantine G. Caras, Esq and Archon Dr. Stamatios V. Kartalopoulos.

- Legal Committee Initiative, including the European Court of Human Rights, coordinated by Archon Christopher Stratakis, Chair and Archon Hon. B. Theodore Bozonelis, Vice Chair

- Patriarchal Properties and Minority Concerns Initiative, coordinated by Archon Hon. B. Theodore Bozonelis

- Social Media Initiative, coordinated by Archon John C. Metaxas, Esq. and initially generously funded by Archon Michael G. Psaros and expanded by Archon Theo Nicolakis, Archon James Gabriel, Fr. Constantine Lazarakis, Elizabeth L. Limberakis, MBA, social media coordinator Stavros Antoniou and John Mindala

- European Union Initiative

- Regional Religious Freedom Presentations throughout the United States

This Annual Report also reviews the spiritual, educational and philanthropic activities of the Order during Archon Weekend, as well, including the Athenagoras Human Rights Award Banquet. The 2016 Athenagoras Human Rights Award was presented to Governor Andrew M. Cuomo who made possible the rebuilding of St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church, the only religious edifice that was destroyed at Ground Zero on September 11, 2001. Of the 56 governors since the founding of New York, Governor Cuomo stood out as an extraordinary advocate of religious liberty and human rights. It was nearly six years ago to the day on October 14, 2011 that Governor Cuomo in the presence of Archbishop Demetrios of America, the Holy Eparchial Synod and lay leaders of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese announced the Agreement with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey regarding the rebuilding and resurrection of Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine at the World Trade Center and Ground Zero.

During Archon Weekend 2016 twenty worthy churchmen were invested by the Exarch as Archons of the Great Church of Christ, the Ecumenical Patriarchate and to each of them we again proclaim Άξιος!

Integral to Archon Weekend is the presentation of the Nicholas J. Bouras Award for Extraordinary Archon Stewardship, named after the beloved and deeply admired late National Vice Commander Nicholas J. Bouras, for whom a lasting tribute was developed seven years ago with the establishment of the Award. This year the 2017 Bouras Award will be presented to Archon John A. Catsimatidis, Chairman of the Order’s Religious Freedom Committee, a most worthy honoree. Archon Bouras of blessed memory through his extraordinary stewardship empowered and continues to empower the Order to pursue its extensive domestic and international religious freedom initiatives that have been effective over the years, but costly. His constant encouragement, advice and exemplary personal conduct as churchman, philanthropist, war hero and patriot will continue to inspire all who had the privilege to know him, and those who will learn of his remarkable life in the years to come.

On behalf of the Order, we extend our deep gratitude to Rev. Alexander Karloutsos, Protopresbyter of the Ecumenical Patriarchate and our Spiritual Advisor who indefatigably offers his enormous efforts and guidance to the Order, as the Archons pursue the institutional human rights and religious freedom of the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

To our National Archon Office Team, headed by Presbytera Xanthi Karloutsos and joined by Graphic Designer John Mindala II, Administrator Christa Pourou and Administrator Elpida Poumprou we extend our heartfelt gratitude.

In closing, the foundation and strength of an organization is based on its membership and its leadership team. It is a great personal honor for me to work side-by-side with the devoted officers of the Order, National Vice Commander John Halecky, Jr., Treasurer James C. Fountas and Secretary Hon. B. Theodore Bozonelis whom we call upon for his sage advice; our hardworking functionaries, Historian Prof. George Demacopoulos, PhD, Legal Counselor Christopher Stratakis, Sergeant-At-Arms Alexander Pritsos and Assistant Treasurer Andreas
D. Comodromos, CPA; Members of the National Council and the Regional Commanders, including our Religious Freedom Chairman Archon John A. Catsimatidis, Archon Michael G. Psaros Athenagoras Human Rights Award Chairman and Banquet Underwriter along with Archon William P. Doucas and the Bouras Foundation; Archon John Zavitsanos who reorganized the Annual Exarch’s Appeal and who now chairs the new Archon Boot Camp Committee, Archon John C. Metaxas coordinator of our Social Media Initiative and the hundreds of Archons throughout America who offer their Time, Talent and Treasure in service to the Great Church of Christ.

At this time it is fitting to pay tribute to three Archons who not only serve the Ecumenical Patriarchate with distinction, but have selflessly served our beloved nation, as well: Archon Reince Hercules Priebus, former White House Chief of Staff, Archon George D. Gigicos, former Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of White House Advance and Archon Michael A. Karloutsos, Acting Chief of Protocol, State Department! We all share in heartfelt brotherly pride in the ecclesiastical and patriotic achievements of these exemplary Archons!

The Archons of America, under the leadership of the Exarch Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America again pledge to all that we will relentlessly pursue the institutional human rights of the Ecumenical Patriarchate so that one day, the bells of religious freedom will be heard around the world emanating from the Patriarchal Cathedral of Saint George and may that sacred day soon come!

5 ISSUES of

Government Interference in Patriarchal Elections
The Turkish government imposes restrictions on the election of the Ecumenical Patriarch and hierarchs who vote for him by requiring that they must be Turkish citizens. In fact, the government arbitrarily can veto any candidate for the position of Ecumenical Patriarch.

With the dwindling population of hierarchs and Orthodox Christians in Turkey, we may not be able to elect an Ecumenical Patriarch in the not too distant future. This is tantamount to the asphyxiation of the leadership of the Holy Mother Church and a clear illustration of the direct intervention of the Turkish government in ecclesiastical matters.

No Legal Identity
The lack of a legal identity is a major source of problems for the Ecumenical Patriarchate including non-recognition of its ownership rights and the non-issuance of residence and work permits for “foreign” (i.e. non-Turkish) priests who are essential to the continuity and functioning of the Ecumenical Patriarchate. The Turkish authorities do not allow the Ecumenical Patriarchate to own any property - not even its churches! The Patriarchal house itself is not recognized as the Patriarchate's property.

Confiscation of Property
The Turkish Government has confiscated thousands of properties from the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

Through various methods, the Turkish authorities have confiscated thousands of properties from the Ecumenical Patriarchate and the Greek Orthodox community over the years including our monasteries, church buildings, an orphanage, private homes, apartment buildings, schools and land. Left unchecked, the remaining Greek Orthodox community of Constantinople (present day Istanbul) - the cultural heirs of the Byzantine Empire - will be threatened and ultimately be no more.
CONCERN

Non-Recognition of "Ecumenical" Status
The Turkish government does not recognize the “Ecumenical” status of the Patriarch and Patriarchate.

Turkish authorities do not allow the use of the term or title of “Ecumenical” for any religious activity whatsoever despite the fact that it has been used since the 6th century A.D. and recognized throughout the world. Turkey regards the Patriarchate as an institution whose leader is seen as the spiritual head of Orthodox Christians in Turkey alone rather than the leader of 300 million Orthodox Christians worldwide.

Forcible closure of Halki Seminary and Inability to Train New Clergy
The Ecumenical Patriarchate is unable to train new clergy in Turkey and its theological school was forcibly closed down by the Turkish Government.

The Theological School of Halki was forcibly closed down by Turkish authorities in 1971. Since its closure, the Ecumenical Patriarchate has had to send the young men from its community desiring to enter the priesthood to one of the theological schools in Greece. In many instances, they do not return given the onerous restrictions in getting work permits and the general climate of intimidation. Despite promises by the Turkish government to re-open our theological school, there has been no progress. Left unresolved, the administrativ
The Church of Constantinople was founded by St. Andrew, the first Apostle. The feast day of its patron is November 30. The first Bishop of Byzantium was Stachys (38-54), Andrew’s disciple.

Following its establishment as capital of the Roman Empire in 330, the status of “Constantinople-New Rome” was elevated to its current position. The 2nd Ecumenical Council (381) conferred on its Bishop second rank after the Bishop of Rome; the 4th Ecumenical Council (451) granted Constantinople equal ranking to Rome, expanding its jurisdiction.

The Ecumenical Patriarchate is referred to as the “Great Church of Christ,” being the reference point for liturgical and administrative matters. It is also called the “Phanar” (or “lighthouse”), referring to the old Greek Orthodox neighborhood in Istanbul. Moreover, it is known as “the Great Monastery,” functioning as a monastic brotherhood under the spiritual direction of the Ecumenical Patriarch.
PATRIARCHAL NEWS
On June 11th the Orthodox Church commemorates the Holy Apostle Bartholomew. One of the Twelve Great Apostles, he preached Christ and the good news of salvation throughout Asia, including India, and finally in Armenia. It was there, in Albanopolis of Armenia -- the first country to officially declare Christianity the state religion -- where Bartholomew was crucified, and where many miracles occurred over the sacred coffin containing his grace-filled relics.

June 11th is also the Name Day of His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, who is named after the Glorious Apostle. Born on February 29, 1940, he grew up on the island of Imvros, in a small village named after Sts. Theodore, the Teron and Stratelates. Recommended by his local bishop and mentor, Meliton of Chalcedon (+1989), Demetrios, for that is Bartholomew’s baptismal name, completed high school and seminary studies at Halki.

It was there at the Theological School of Halki, in the Chapel of the Holy Trinity, where in October 1969 the revered Metropolitan Meliton ordained Deacon Bartholomew to the holy priesthood. Before this, however, he would complete his mandatory two-year military service, and supplement his academic studies in Europe, including in Italy, Germany, and Switzerland. He eventually completed his doctoral thesis (The Codification of the Holy Canons and the Canonical Constitutions in the Orthodox Church) and returned to Constantinople in 1968 fluent in seven languages.

Since then, for a half-century, His All-Holiness has been at the centre of both the inner workings and initiatives, as well as the external activities, of the Ecumenical Patriarchate -- the first See of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. Whether it was learning from the erudite Ecumenical Patriarch, Athenagoras, or serving for almost two decades as the director of the Private Patriarchal Office for his immediate predecessor, Demetrios, Bartholomew exudes the unparalleled history and spirit emanating from the lighthouse that is the Phanar.

Elected 270th Archbishop of Constantinople, New Rome and Ecumenical Patriarch on October 22, 1991, His All-Holiness was enthroned in the Patriarchal Cathedral of St. George the Great Martyr eleven days later, on November 2nd. His longevity on the Ecumenical Throne alone is legendary -- and historical. According to the first-ever definitive biography of His All-Holiness published last year, Bartholomew: Apostle and Visionary, he is one of only four patriarchs to serve more than 25-years, joining Titus from the third century, Sergius (seventh), and Nicholas (twelfth).

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has not just survived since being enthroned, he has thrived. His well-known work ethic, strategic communication skills, and his ability to bridge differences and build consensus among disparate groups, has enabled his personal success as patriarch and, more importantly, a robust renewal of the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

His accomplishments and accolades are too many to mention. He has received numerous state awards and honorary degrees from prestigious universities around the world. He has opened the door of Orthodoxy to many other Christian confessions and communities. He has engaged other faith communities with honesty and integrity; this includes organizing and participating in many interfaith conferences, including one shortly after the 9/11 terrorist attacks where he addressed a Conference on Peaceful Coexistence (Brussels, 2001) between Judaism, Christianity, and the Islamic world. He has been an unrelenting advocate for the environment, for God’s creation, well before it became popular or trendy to do so.

He has strengthened the Patriarchate, internationally, but in and around Constantinople as well. He has established many new metropolitan dioceses, from Toronto to Korea, Singapore to Spain. From securing the return of the former Greek Orphanage on Buyukada Island to reviving the monastic life on Halki under the spiritual guidance of Metropolitan Elpidophoros (the seminary regrettably remains closed, for now). Through his leadership, the Holy and Sacred Synod is electing and ordaining a new generation of learned hierarchs.

Within Orthodoxy, Bartholomew has made unity among the 14 autocephalous churches a cornerstone of his ministry, developing regular Synaxis of Primates -- His All-Holiness has convened and chaired six Synaxis of Primates since being enthroned as Ecumenical Patriarch. Most of all, it was the Holy and Great Council of the Orthodox Church convened on the historic island of Crete where the Church manifested its unity on a world scale. Without His All-Holiness the Holy and Great Council would have remained an academic idea and an unreachable dream.

The power of an apostle, as described by St. Paul in his Second Letter to the Corinthians (cf. 4:7-15), and exemplified by St. Bartholomew and all of Christ’s disciples, is to be hard-pressed yet not crushed; perplexed but not in despair; persecuted but not forsaken; struck down but not destroyed.

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has followed in the footsteps of his patron saint, the Holy Apostle Bartholomew, preaching Christ crucified. His steadfast faith, unwavering loyalty to Holy Orthodoxy, self-sacrifice and service to others, in addition to his love for man and creation, is to be admired and imitated.

CONCORDIA SUMMIT
ATHENS

On June 7, 2017, His All-Holiness addressed the Concordia Europe Summit, in Athens, Greece. Concordia is a non-profit organization founded by Mr. Nick Logothetis and Mr. Matthew Swift that cultivates public-private partnerships in order to address issues challenging societies around the world. The Patriarch’s remarks introduced a session focused on the refugee and migration crisis.
Your Holiness Tawadros II, Pope and Patriarch of the Coptic Church in Egypt, our beloved brother in Christ: grace and peace from on high.

It was with a heavy heart that we learned of the terrorist attacks targeting your churches and faithful flock who, like us, gathered to pray and honor this most holy day of the ecclesiastical year marking the Lord’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem. We witnessed in the media with great grief the destruction and mourning that these barbaric attacks have brought to your community, as well as to all of Christendom, and we hasten to convey our wholehearted condolences and the prayers of the Ecumenical Patriarchate. As a martyric Church, we also stand in solidarity with you and your people, who have prevailed courageously and faithfully for centuries over persecution and oppression.

The challenges posed to our present day and age by fundamentalism are great -- the pain of those mourning equally so. Yet, we understand that our responsibility to the contemporary world is to remain resilient in times of terror and faithful in times of doubt and unnerving circumstances. We worship the One who responded to the godless and unrepentant spirit of humanity, by descending from His heavenly abode to embrace us. He, for “us and our salvation”, became man in order that “men might be like God”. It was through His humility, forbearance, simplicity, and unceasing and inexhaustible love that He not only conquered sin, but also won for us the ability to be victorious with Him over sin and death.

Our victory through Christ Jesus was promised to us, most especially when persecuted for righteousness and because of His name. At this very moment, we remember His words: “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven...” (Matthew 5:11-12). May the promise of the Kingdom and the gift of grace be bestowed upon the victims of this tragedy and their families, and may our Lord grant peace and refreshment to all those suffering. May their memories be eternal and may He who accepted to ride upon a colt “as though riding upon the cherubim” grant us all unending faith, courage, and patience to endure and transform this “sinful and perverse generation”.

Conveying to Your Holiness and the entire Coptic Church our sympathies once again, we embrace you with a “holy kiss” and remain with much love and fraternal honor.

The way we respond to the natural environment is directly reflects the way we treat human beings. The willingness to exploit the environment is revealed in the willingness to permit avoidable human suffering. So the survival of the natural environment is also the survival of ourselves.

"The way we respond to the natural environment is directly reflects the way we treat human beings. The willingness to exploit the environment is revealed in the willingness to permit avoidable human suffering. So the survival of the natural environment is also the survival of ourselves.

When we will understand that a crime against nature is a crime against ourselves and sin against God?"

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has officially endorsed a commentary on climate change that appeared in Nature (June Issue)—the international weekly journal of science.

On behalf of His All-Holiness, Archdeacon John Chryssavgis collaborated with Christiana Figueres -- former director of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, principal architect of the Paris Agreement, and current convener of Mission 2020 -- on a six-point plan entitled “Three Years to Safeguard our Climate.” The sixty-two signatories include distinguished scientists, business leaders, prominent economists, religious leaders, representatives of non-government organizations and former heads of State, making the article one of the most significant pieces on climate change to date.

For over twenty-five years -- even before the United Nations realized the severity of environmental degradation -- the Green Patriarch has emphasized the need for a collaborative and concerted response to caring for God’s creation. More recently, he was instrumental in the process leading up to the Paris Agreement, participating in several events in Paris and Manila, where he accompanied President Hollande of France.

From the start, the Ecumenical Patriarch has made the fight against climate change a priority. "When we will understand that a crime against nature is a crime against ourselves and sin against God?"
His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew and His Holiness Pope Francis have issued a joint statement on the "World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation". This is the first time ever that the two leaders of the Catholic and Orthodox communities have jointly issued a statement exclusively on the environment; previously each had issued their own individual statement.
The story of creation presents us with a panoramic view of the world. Scripture reveals that, "in the beginning", God intended humanity to cooperate in the preservation and protection of the natural environment. At first, as we read in Genesis, "no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up -- for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground" (2:5). The earth was entrusted to us as a sublime gift and legacy, for which all of us share responsibility until, "in the end", all things in heaven and on earth will be restored in Christ (cf. Eph. 1:10). Our human dignity and welfare are deeply connected to our care for the whole of creation.

However, "in the meantime", the history of the world presents a very different context. It reveals a morally decaying scenario where our attitude and behavior towards creation obscures our calling as God's co-operators. Our propensity to interrupt the world's delicate and balanced ecosystems, our insatiable desire to manipulate and control the planet's limited resources, and our greed for limitless profit in markets -- all these have alienated us from the original purpose of creation. We no longer respect nature as a shared gift; instead, we regard it as a private possession. We no longer associate with nature in order to sustain it; instead, we lord over it to support our own constructs.

The consequences of this alternative worldview are tragic and lasting. The human environment and the natural environment are deteriorating together, and this deterioration of the planet weighs upon the most vulnerable of its people. The impact of climate change affects, first and foremost, those who live in poverty in every corner of the globe. Our obligation to use the earth's goods responsibly implies the recognition of and respect for all people and all living creatures. The urgent call and challenge to care for creation are an invitation for all of humanity to work toward sustainable and integral development.

Therefore, united by the same concern for God's creation and acknowledging the earth as a shared good, we fervently invite all people of goodwill to dedicate a time of prayer for the environment on September 1st. On this occasion, we wish to offer thanks to the loving Creator for the noble gift of creation and to pledge commitment to its care and preservation for the sake of future generations. After all, we know that we labor in vain if the Lord is not by our side (cf. Ps. 126-127), if prayer is not at the center of our reflection and celebration. Indeed, an objective of our prayer is to change the way we perceive the world in order to change the way we relate to the world. The goal of our promise is to be courageous in embracing greater simplicity and solidarity in our lives.

We urgently appeal to those in positions of social and economic, as well as political and cultural, responsibility to hear the cry of the earth and to attend to the needs of the marginalized, but above all to respond to the plea of millions and support the consensus of the world for the healing of our wounded creation. We are convinced that there can be no sincere and enduring resolution to the challenge of the ecological crisis and climate change unless the response is concerted and collective, unless the responsibility is shared and accountable, unless we give priority to solidarity and service.

The Order of Saint Andrew the Apostle, Archons of the Ecumenical Patriarchate
Archbishop Demetrios of America, Exarch of the Ecumenical Patriarchate together with Archon National Commander Dr. Anthony J. Limberakis presented the Athenagoras Human Rights Award to New York Governor Andrew M. Cuomo at the New York Marriott Marquis, Oct. 15, 2016. Governor Cuomo has been a strong advocate for religious freedom for the Ecumenical Patriarchate, and was the instrumental person in the process of securing an agreement with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey regarding the rebuilding and resurrection of St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Archbishop Demetrios of America together with Archon National Commander Dr. Anthony J. Limberakis present the Athenagoras Human Rights Award to New York Governor Andrew M. Cuomo.
The Governor has had a long family history of working with the Greek Orthodox Church. In 1990, his father, Governor Mario Cuomo of blessed memory, along with his gracious wife Matilda, hosted Patriarch Dimitrios, Metropolitan Bartholomew of Chalcedon, and the entire Patriarchal retinue at the World Trade Center. It was a quintessential New York moment, and in the midst of that fellowship and fraternity high atop the Twin Towers, who could have ever imagined that those Towers would come crashing down in the most horrific attack on United States soil in our history, ripping away three thousand lives... and one small church.

Dr. Limberakis praised Governor Cuomo, saying, “And then decades later, after the terror of those days, the continuous healing for the bereft families, and the long struggle to rebuild Ground Zero back into the World Trade Center, it was you, Governor Cuomo, in the same position as your ever-memorable father, who led the way to a solution for the little Church that ultimately comes under the Ecumenical Patriarch. You provided the Solomon-like wisdom that we needed to bring the Church and the Port Authority to the very happy conclusion that Saint Nicholas would be rebuilt at Ground Zero. You brought

The cause of our rejoicing today is that we see both the gratitude and esteem you have for Governor Cuomo as well as the deep respect and appreciation that has been expressed by him and his beloved father, former Governor Mario Cuomo of blessed memory, over the years to the entire Greek Orthodox community in the United States.”

The cause of our rejoicing today is that we see both the gratitude and esteem you have for Governor Cuomo as well as the deep respect and appreciation that has been expressed by him and his beloved father, former Governor Mario Cuomo of blessed memory, over the years to the entire Greek Orthodox community in the United States.”

His All-Holiness
As Governor, his steadfast leadership in establishing the right of the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church at Ground Zero to be rebuilt and his prudent and wise guidance that is bringing the rebuilding of this National Shrine of the Holy Archdiocese of America to a reality demonstrates unequivocally his courageous support of religious freedom.”
full circle the hospitality of your father at the World Trade Center... by finding a just and equitable solution for the World Trade Center. You merit our thanks and our praise for your central role in providing fairness and justice to the decision process surrounding Saint Nicholas. Perhaps in this we see a small consequence of the fact that your name is "Andrew," the first-called Disciple who founded the Church of Constantinople, and that your birthday is December 6th, the Feastday of Saint Nicholas whose Shrine is now rising in Liberty Park, casting its light over all who come to pay their respects and tributes at the 9/11 Memorial."

In his response, Governor Cuomo said, “When Archbishop Demetrios spoke about St. Nicholas, I heard Archbishop Iakovos' voice, I heard my father's voice. I heard them saying what better place than 9-11 to have a monument, a sanctuary that says we are all one people and all are invited to one, holy place. St. Nicholas is going to be the only Church on Ground Zero with a beautiful history, there since 1916, one of the first places that the Greek immigrants would visit. The first touch stone, they would land on Ellis Island and they would take a ferry over and St. Nicholas was right there downtown so they could get off that boat and they could step into a Church where they felt comfortable and they felt reassured with the peace of home. A beautiful history, but also a beautiful future."

The Governor continued, “Because the new St. Nicholas is going to be bigger and better than ever. Saying on the side of 9-11, the side of the greatest hate, I offer you love. That's what St. Nicholas is going to say, because love is better than hate. I offer you inclusion, because inclusion is better than exclusion. I offer you good, because good defeats evil. And I give you a place of holiness and beauty to say, 'we are one and let us come together and focus on our similarities and let's disregard our differences.' That is St. Nicholas. That's why Archbishop Demetrios stayed on this project with his quiet persistence year after year, after year. That's why the State of New York made a terrible mistake for all those years where they didn't honor their original agreement to build St. Nicholas. And that's why as Governor of the State of New York, one of a handful of beautiful accomplishments that I'll have for the rest of my life, is being able to visit that new St. Nicholas. Knowing what it stands for. Knowing who built it. Knowing what it means to the Greeks. Knowing what it means to the world. I ask for one thing: In one corner, a little picture of two great friends, two great men who always believed we could be better than we are--Archbishop Iakovos and Mario Cuomo.”

Archon Michael Psaros, Banquet Chair, introduced the dais guests at the beginning of the program, the national anthems were sung by Eva Agathis. Archon Ernie Anastos, Emmy Award Winner, Fox 5 News, served as the Master of Ceremonies.

Governor Andrew M. Cuomo

Governor Cuomo, a strong advocate for religious freedom for the Ecumenical Patriarchate, was the instrumental person in the process of securing the agreement with the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey regarding the rebuilding and resurrection of Saint Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and National Shrine at the World Trade Center.

“I extend the profound gratitude of the Church to our precious friend, Governor Cuomo, who understood the human need to rebuild a church lost to national tragedy and resurrect a symbol that represented to the world the bonds that unite the many into one people who cherish liberty for all.”

And at the highest part, at the crown, was the cross, the protector of the city.

ERDOGAN'S ATTACK on U.S. Citizens

Videos and photos tracked the actions of 24 men, including armed members of President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's security detail, who attacked protesters in Washington in May. Many of the protesters were American citizens. The men kicked people lying on the ground and put a woman in a chokehold just a mile from the White House. They outnumbered the protesters nearly two to one. The State Department condemned the episode, and some American lawmakers have called for the men to be prosecuted. But none were charged with a crime.

Washington, DC 20530

The Honorable Rex W. Tillerson
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, DC 20520

Dear Attorney General Sessions and Secretary Tillerson:

We write today to express our outrage over the remorseless acts of violence inflicted upon individuals exercising their Constitutionally-protected First Amendment right to free speech outside the Washington, D.C., residence of the Turkish Ambassador on Tuesday, May 16, 2017. Widely circulated video evidence shows and subsequent reports confirm that several members of Turkish President Tayyip Erdogan’s security detail physically assaulted multiple individuals leaving them bloodied and bruised with some having to be hospitalized due to the severity of their injuries.

This behavior is the second time in two years that Turkish security forces have threatened and assaulted U.S. citizens and legal residents on American soil. This is unacceptable in any situation, but even more so when Turkish leaders come and claim to be faithful allies to the United States. This clear disrespect for our laws and those who enforce them, especially during National Police Week, is intolerable.

The individuals involved in Tuesday’s attacks on Americans on U.S. soil must be identified and brought to justice. Turkish personnel based in the U.S. were involved in the attacks should be declared persona non grata and expelled from the U.S. immediately. Turkish personnel not based in the United States who were involved in the attacks should be barred from entry into the U.S. in the future. Foreign nationals who cannot respect the rule of law of this great country should not be allowed to enjoy the rights and privileges it affords.

Allies do not threaten U.S. troops and allies do not attack U.S. citizens on American soil. We ask you to uphold law and order and demand accountability from the Erdogan government.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this important matter and look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Gus M. Bilirakis

The remarks this week by Turkish President Erdogan on the so-called lack of “freedom of religion” in the United States over a single Iftar-dinner at the US State Department have demonstrated once again the absurdity of the Turkish position on human rights and religious liberty. To this very minute, Turkey’s oldest religious institution, the Ecumenical Patriarchate, goes unrecognized, harassed, and its purely Theological School on the island of Halki remains closed for nearly fifty years.

Throughout the history of the modern Turkish state, the person of the Ecumenical Patriarch has been disrespected by the formal disallowance of his rightful title, “Ecumenical,” a title belonging to his office for 1,400 years. President Erdogan demands every accommodation for his co-religionists and countrymen in the United States and around the world, and indeed anyone who has been to the Ottoman-style Turkish religious compound in the DC suburb of Lanham, Maryland (diyanetamerica.org) can see for themselves the American respect for all religions at work. However, he has proven nothing less than a hypocrite in his own country, which contains the sacred center of Orthodox Christianity, the second largest Christian faith in the world. President Erdogan would do well to look at his own house first, and acknowledge the abuses of the past and make corrections now and for the future in his own country, if he wishes to be taken seriously when he speaks of religious freedom.
The OSCE has a comprehensive approach to security that encompasses politico-military, economic and environmental, and human aspects. It therefore addresses a wide range of security-related concerns, including arms control, confidence- and security-building measures, human rights, national minorities, democratization, policing strategies, counter-terrorism and economic and environmental activities. All 57 participating States enjoy equal status, and decisions are taken by consensus on a politically, but not legally binding basis.

Ecumenical Patriarchate’s Religious Freedom issues presented by Archons at annual OSCE Human Rights Conference in Warsaw, Poland

The Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) convenes its Human Dimension Implementation Meeting (HDIM) in Warsaw, Poland annually. HDIM is Europe’s largest annual human rights and democracy conference and is a platform for the 57 OSCE participating nation states, international organizations and other relevant actors to take stock of the implementation of the OSCE human dimension commitments.

Since 2005, the Order has sent a delegation to the OSCE meetings, to present to the international community the Turkish Republic’s continuing violations of human rights and religious freedom asphyxiating the Ecumenical Patriarchate. Archons Constantine G. Caras, Esq. and Dr. Stamatios V. Kartalopoulos represented the Order at this year’s 2017 OSCE Conference in Warsaw.

Archons Caras and Kartalopoulos each participated in the assembly on September 13-14, submitted written statements, and presented oral arguments on September 14th detailing the discrimination and impediments to religious freedom faced by the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey today. Many of the 57 participating nation states send ambassadors to the OSCE. The Turkish ambassador to the OSCE, who always attends during presentations by the Order, is offered the opportunity to respond and does so.

Because of the stature that the conference enjoys, the US State Department sends a delegation to monitor the meetings as well. The Archons representing the Order conferred with the participating U. S. State Department representatives, and provided them with the most current information regarding the status of our Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey, the major issues of which we are all aware, the most recent developments and current documents of the Order.

Archons Caras and Kartalopoulos also conferred with the Ambassador of the Greek Republic to the OSCE, and others in attendance who are sympathetic to the Ecumenical Patriarchate.
The Indiana State Senate Judiciary Committee has recently adopted SR2, a religious freedom resolution in support of the Ecumenical Patriarchate. Once the resolution has been adopted by the Indiana State Senate, then 55 such resolutions will have been adopted by 45 states. Indiana has yet to join this group, in part because the state is divided between the jurisdictions of the Metropolis of Chicago and Metropolis of Detroit. Their Eminences Metropolitan Iakovos of Chicago and Metropolitan Nicholas of Detroit have been working together to see Indiana become the 45th state to pass this important resolution.

The resolution calls on the Turkish government to respect the religious freedoms and rights of the minority Greek Orthodox Church in the predominantly Muslim nation following decades of legal disputes, confiscation of properties, and the closing of the only seminary serving Orthodox Christians in Turkey in 1971.

Under the guidance of His Grace Bishop Demetrios of Mokissos, chancellor of the Metropolis of Chicago and Fr. Dean Hountalas, chancellor of the Metropolis of Detroit, Archon Regional Commanders Gus M. Pablecas, John G. Manos, and Lazaros Kircos joined numerous Greek Orthodox clergy and parishioners in testifying before the Indiana State Senate Judiciary Committee. These members included Archon Chris Rongos, along with Fr. Hountalas, Fr. William Bartz, Fr. Lucas Christensen, Fr. Andrew Walsh, and John Ackerman.

The legislative effort was led by Indiana State Senator Lonnie Randolph and State Representative Bob Morris, who also committed to moving the resolution through the Indiana House of Representatives soon.
