Representative Mary Lou Marzian introduced the following resolution which was ordered to be printed:

A Resolution urging the Government of the Republic of Turkey to grant the Ecumenical Patriarchate appropriate international recognition, ecclesiastical succession, and the right to train clergy of all nationalities, and to respect the property rights and human rights of the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

Whereas, the Ecumenical Patriarchate, located in Istanbul, Turkey, is the Sacred See that provides for a spirit of brotherhood over a communion of self-governing churches of the Orthodox Christian world; and

Whereas, the See is led by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, who is the 269th in direct succession to the Apostle Andrew and holds titular primacy as primus inter pares, meaning "first among equals," in the communion of Orthodox churches worldwide; and

Whereas, in 1991, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, along with leaders of the Appeal of Conscience Foundation, conferred the Conference on Peace and Tolerance, which brought together Christian, Jewish, and Muslim religious leaders for an interfaith dialogue to help end the Balkan conflict and the ethnic conflict in the Caucasus region; and

Whereas, in 1997, the Congress of the United States awarded Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew the Congressional Gold Medal; and

Whereas, following the terroristic attacks on our nation on September 11, 2001, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew gathered a group of international religious leaders to produce the first joint statement with Muslim leaders that condemned the 9/11 attacks as "anti-religious;" and

Whereas, in October 2005, the Ecumenical Patriarch, along with Christian, Jewish, and Muslim leaders, conferred the Conference on Peace and Tolerance II to further promote peace and stability in southeastern Europe, the Caucasus region, and Central Asia; and religious leaders' interfaith dialogue, understanding, and action; and

Whereas, the Orthodox Christian Church, in existence for nearly 2000 years, members approximately 300 million members worldwide, with more than 2 million members in the United States; and

Whereas, since 1653, the continuing presence of the Ecumenical Patriarchate in Turkey has been a living testament to the religious coexistence of Christians and Muslims; and

Whereas, this religious coexistence is in jeopardy because the Ecumenical Patriarchate is considered a minority religion by the Turkish government; and

Whereas, the Government of Turkey has limited the candidates available to hold the office of Ecumenical Patriarch to only Turkish nationals; and, if the millions of Orthodox Christians living in Turkey at the turn of the 21st century, due to the continued policies during this period by the Turkish government, there remain less than 3,000 of the Ecumenical Patriarch's flock left in Turkey today; and

Whereas, the Government of Turkey closed the Theological School on the island of Thasos in 1941 and has refused to allow it to reopen, thus impeding training for Orthodox Christian clergy; and

Whereas, the Turkish government has confiscated nearly 94 percent of the Ecumenical Patriarchate's properties and has placed a 42 percent tax, retroactive to 1999, on the Istanbul Hospital and Home for the Aged, a charity hospital run by the Ecumenical Patriarchate; and

Whereas, the European Union, a group of nations with a common goal of promoting peace and the well-being of its peoples, began accession negotiations with Turkey on October 3, 2005; and

Whereas, the European Union defined membership criteria for accession at the Copenhagen European Council in 1993, obligating candidate countries to achieve certain levels of reform, including stability of institutions guaranteeing democracy, adherence to the rule of law, and respect for and protection of minorities and human rights; and

Whereas, the Turkish government's current treatment of the Ecumenical Patriarchate is inconsistent with the membership conditions and goals of the European Union; and

Whereas, Orthodox Christians in this state and throughout the United States stand to lose their spiritual leaders because of the continued actions of the Turkish government; and

Whereas, the Heads of the Ecumenical Patriarchate of the Order of St. Andrew the Apostle, a group of laymen who each have been hounded with a patriarchal title, or "Archbishop," by the Ecumenical Patriarch for their outstanding service to the Orthodox Church, will send an American delegation to Turkey to meet with Turkish government officials, as well as the United States Ambassador to the Republic of Turkey, regarding the Turkish government's treatment of the Ecumenical Patriarchate;

Now, Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. The members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby urge the government of the Republic of Turkey for:

1. Uphold and safeguard religious and human rights without compromise;
